The University of Mississippi offers supportive measures for those impacted by Title IX or interpersonal violence or sexual misconduct with or without the filing of a Formal Complaint. Supportive measures are non-disciplinary, non-punitive, individualized services offered by the University as appropriate, as reasonably available, and without fee or charge, to the complainant or the respondent before or after the filing of a formal Title IX or Interpersonal Violence and Sexual Misconduct complaint, or where no formal complaint has been filed. Such measures are designed to restore or preserve access to the University's educational programs or activities without unreasonably burdening the other party, protect the safety of all parties and the University's educational environment, and deter sexual harassment.

At any time during the Title IX or Interpersonal Violence and Sexual Misconduct investigation or hearing, the complainant may notify the Assistant Director of Equal Opportunity & Regulatory Compliance/Title IX Coordinator in writing that the complainant would like to withdraw the Formal Complaint or any allegations therein.
